Blessed Among Us

Enrique Angelelli
Bishop and Martyr (1923-1976)

Enrique Angelelli was appointed bishop of La Rioja in Argentina in 1968. Among the largely conservative hierarchy of Argentina, he was among the few to strongly support the prophetic line of the Latin American bishops at Medellin. In his first message as bishop he said, "With one ear I listen to the gospel and with the other I listen to the people." Before long he was on a collision course with the military and other powerful interests, who complained that he was a communist who had "ruined the church of Pius XII."

In 1976 a military coup unleashed a vicious era of persecution. By and large the Church hierarchy stood silent-or worse, offered tacit blessings to the military's defense of order and "Christian values." Angelelli denounced the terror, which included the abduction and murder of his priests. He compiled documents proving government responsibility for these murders. These documents were with him on August 4th when two cars ran his truck off the road. He was found dead twenty-five yards away and his briefcase missing. The police labeled it an accident.

With the return of democracy, a court in 1986 reopened the case and termed it a clear homicide. In 2006 at a Mass commemorating the thirtieth anniversary of his death, Cardinal Jorge Bergoglio, now Pope Francis, became the first Argentine prelate to refer to Angelelli as a martyr.

"The thought crosses my mind that the Lord needs a bishop in jail or killed in order to make us wake up to episcopal collegiality and live it more deeply."—
Bishop Enrique Angelelli

The Feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord August 6th

All three Synoptic Gospels tell the story of the Transfiguration (Matthew 17:1-8; Mark 9:2-9; Luke 9:28-36). With remarkable agreement, all three place the event shortly after Peter's confession of faith that Jesus is the Messiah and Jesus' first prediction of his passion and death. Peter's eagerness to erect tents or booths on the spot suggests it occurred during the Jewish weeklong, fall Feast of Booths.

Tradition names Mt. Tabor as the site of the revelation. A church first raised there in the fourth century was dedicated on August 6. A feast in honor of the Transfiguration was celebrated in the Eastern Church from about that time. Western observance began in some localities about the eighth century.

On July 22, 1456, Crusaders defeated the Turks at Belgrade. News of the victory reached Rome on August 6, and Pope Callistus III placed the feast on the Roman calendar the following year.

Weeds and Flowers

A lady decided to focus on her back yard flower garden. Initially, it took a force of will not to be overwhelmed and discouraged by the sheer amount of work. Some weeds were too tough to pull out by the roots, so she cut them down to nothing. After years of hard work, the insidious plants are still there, but her more desirable plants are starting to overtake the weeds so there are less and less to cut back each year.

Building a back yard is like spiritual practice. We keep working on cutting back the undesirable part of our lives, the sin, even though it never really goes completely away. But by adding more and more of what we need to come into a closer union with God - with a whole lot of work plus patience, practice, perseverance, and faith - the wonder and beauty of who we are as God's creatures starts to take over. Well worth the time and effort, don't you agree?
