Blessed Among Us

Thomas Frederick Price

Cofounder of Maryknoll (1860-1919)

Thomas Frederick Price was born in 1860 in North Carolina, the child of Catholic converts. He would become the first Catholic priest ordained in the thoroughly Protestant state, a fact that helped inspire his great zeal for mission.

In 1910 at the Eucharistic Congress in Montreal, he met Fr. James Anthony Walsh, director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith in Boston. Together they conceived the idea of founding a mission seminary to recruit and train American priests for overseas mission, particularly in China. At a time when the U.S. had itself only recently emerged from the status of mission territory, this was a bold plan. Nevertheless, in 1911 they received support from the U.S. bishops and from Rome to establish the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America-popularly known as Maryknoll.

Of the two founders, Price was the more contemplative-"the Mary to Walsh's Martha"-who cherished a deep devotion to the Blessed Mother and St. Bernadette of Lourdes. He volunteered to serve among the first party of six priests who traveled to China in 1918, though his fragile health was not equal to the challenge. He died there after only a few months, living only to glimpse the first seeds of Maryknoll's overseas mission.

"If the Catholics in this country but did their duty to both home and foreign missions, a mighty change would take place both in ourselves and in the whole foreign-mission world." - Fr. Thomas Frederick Price

The 23rd Sunday in Ordinary Time September 7, 2014

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives advice about dealing with those who sin against us. As the good shepherd goes after the lost sheep, so we too should seek to bring back the lost. This instruction is addressed to the members of the church. In fact, today's text is only one of two in which the word "church" is found on Jesus's lips. In the gospel for the 21st Sunday, Jesus gave Peter alone the authority to bind and loose, in today's text, Jesus repeats those words, this time giving the disciples the same authority to forgive and to withhold forgiveness.

For reflection: Why should fraternal correction be a part of the Christian lifestyle? When have I been admonished for a wrong I committed? How did I react to it?

DIOCESE NEWS

Daughters of the Sacred Heart

Next week, Sister Elsy Thomas will be here to speak to us about her institute, founded by Madre Maria Teresa Nuzzo in Malta. Their ministry includes education, caring for the poorest of the poor, victims of AIDS, formation of youth and social activities in rural and remote areas in India, Kenya, Tanzania and Philippines. The sisters spread the devotion of the sacred Heart of Jesus into the hearts of everyone. We will take up a second collection in support of their mission.
