Blessed Among Us

Sister Agneta Chang

Maryknoll Sister and Martyr (1910-1950)

Agneta Chang, who came from a prominent and devoutly Catholic family of Korea, was among the first Koreans to join the American-based Maryknoll sisters in 1922. In describing the reason for her application, she wrote, "In order to become holy and then to help my country and people." After spending her novitiate in the motherhouse in New York, she was assigned to return to Korea, where she spent a number of peaceful years in parish and catechetical work. This was interrupted by the outbreak of World War II, when the American-born Sisters were imprisoned by the Japanese and then repatriated. Sister Agneta remained behind, cut off from the outside, as she helped to develop the first Korean women's congregation, the Sisters of Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

Upon the conclusion of the war, with Korea divided at the 38th Parallel, Sister Agneta and her novices found themselves trapped in the Communist North. Though bedridden as a result of an old injury, Sister Agneta was ordered to report for mandatory civil defense work. When she could not comply, soldiers loaded her on an oxcart, and she was carried away. She was last seen on October 4, 1950. Her last words were, "Lord, have mercy on us." Word later arrived that Sister Agneta was shot and buried in a nearby ditch.

"Oh miserable night! My heart seemed to shatter and break into a thousand pieces and it seemed pitiless to me that the ground did not cleave open."—A fellow Sister, describing Sister Agneta's arrest

26TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

September 28, 2014

Jesus' parable of the two sons mirrors the difference between Jesus's opponents and sinners. The first son represents those who originally refuse to follow God's way but then have a change of heart. In the text from Ezekiel, the prophet reminds us that God holds us accountable for our sins. He calls us to reject sin and be faithful to the Lord, who is God of all the earth. In today's second reading, Paul calls the Philippians to live lives worthy of the gospel. The vocation of a Christian calls us to confirm our lives to that of Christ Jesus.

For reflection: Am I progressing in my spiritual growth? Do I make a conscious effort to follow the example of Christ?
