Blessed Among Us

Mother Antonia Brenner
"Prison Angel" (1926-2013)

Mother Antonia Brenner, who died on Oct. 17, 2013, spent nearly thirty years in prison, though she had committed no crime. Instead, responding to a call from God, she had abandoned her life in Beverly Hills, taken religious vows, and voluntarily entered the La Mesa prison in Tijuana, Mexico, to live as an inmate and to minister to those behind bars.

She was born Mary Clarke to a very different life. Twice married and divorced, she raised seven children. In 1969, after Jesus appeared to her in a dream, she determined to devote her life to his service. While going through her second divorce a priest had invited her to help in his prison ministry at La Mesa—an overcrowded prison that housed eight thousand inmates.

After years of visiting the prison and performing small acts of charity she felt that God was calling her to something more. As no religious order would accept a fifty-year-old divorced woman, she sewed her own habit and took private religious vows. Eventually she received permission to move into a cell in the women's section of the prison, and "felt as if I'd come home". In the prison she walked freely among murderers, gang members, and other desperate criminals. Her loving presence often quelled violence. She was known as the "Prison Angel", or simply Mama.

"Happiness does not depend on where you are. I live in prison. And I have not had a day of depression in 25 years. I have been upset, angry, and I have been sad, but never depressed. I have a reason for my being."—Mother Antonia Brenner

28TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME October 12, 2014

In these last weeks of the liturgical year, our readings focus on things associated with the end of the world. Isaiah anticipates a day when God will defeat the enemy and host a great feast. Paul speaks of his experience of living both "in humble circumstances" and "with abundance". Because of "him who strengthens me", Paul can face any trial that comes his way. The imagery of a wedding feast in today's Gospel anticipates the Day of the Lord. The parable teaches us that it is not enough to accept the invitation; we must act on it as well.

For Reflection: What is my image of the Day of the Lord? Why is caring for each other such an important part of our vocation?

Balloon Rosary

Our CCD students enjoyed a rosary learning activity this past Sunday. Balloons were the beads of a giant rosary, once the rosary was prayed, the balloons were released and the prayers rose up to heaven.

Men's Group Special Meeting - 14 Oct

The Holy Redeemer Men's Group will be meeting Tuesday, 14 Oct, at 7pm on the sidewalk near Planned Parenthood, 6464 John Ryan Dr, in SW Fort Worth to participate in the 40 Days for Life prayer vigil. All men are invited. Turbocharge your spiritual life and stand-up against the greatest evil in our midst. Hope to see you there!

DIOCESE NEWS

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

World Mission Sunday is fast approaching and will be observed the weekend of Oct. 18-19, 2014. There are in our world more than 1,150 mission dioceses and territories that depend on annual subsidies from the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, and on the prayers of all of us. There are some 80,000 seminarians preparing for the priesthood, and about 10,000 in formation to serve as religious Sisters and Brothers. Mission is so central to the Gospel and the needs are so urgent that I encourage you to embrace this responsibility thoroughly.
