The Lubeck Martyrs

Witnesses to the Kingdom (1943)

On November 10, 1943, four Christian martyrs were executed by the Nazis in a prison in Hamburg. They were Fathers Johannes Prassek, Edward Muller, and Hermann Lange, all Catholic priests who worked at the Sacred Heart Church in Lubeck, and Karl-Friedrich Stellbrink, an Evangelical Lutheran minister. Beheaded within minutes of one another, their blood literally ran together.

Although ecumenical dialogue was unusual at the time, all four men had become friends some years before, after delicately discovering their shared opposition to the ideology of National Socialism and the regime's policies of euthanasia, anti-Semitism, and other crimes. The authorities had suspected their loyalty for some time and employed informants to gather evidence against them. A specific trigger came after the Palm Sunday service when Pastor Stellbrink gave a sermon interpreting an air raid as a judgment of God. He was arrested the next day, with the priests following soon after.

Charged with defeatism, malice, favoring the enemy, and listening to enemy broadcasts, they were convicted and sentenced to death. Their bond was strengthened in the months they awaited death. "We are like brothers," Lange wrote. "Personally, I am quite calm and await firmly what is to come. Once one really has achieved complete devotion to the will of God, then there is a wonderful peace and the consciousness of absolute security."

The three priests were beatified in 2011 in a service which made special note of the witness of their Protestant brother.

"The ecumenism of the martyrs, and the witnesses to the faith is the most convincing ecumenism." -Pope John Paul II

FEAST OF THE LATERAN BASILICA

November 9, 2014

Today the Church celebrates the feast of the Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome. The Basilica of St. John Lateran is the cathedral of Rome. This is not St. Peter's, but it is the Pope's cathedral. Also called the Church of Holy Savior or the Church of St. John Baptist, it was the baptism church of ancient Rome. It was built in the time of Constantine and was consecrated by Pope Sylvester in 324. This feast became a universal celebration in honor of the basilica called "the mother and mistress of all churches of Rome and the world" (omnium urbis et orbis ecclesiarum mater et caput) as a sign of love for and union with the See of Peter.

All adults are welcomed for a new Bible Study on Revelation.

The study explores the Kingdom established by Christ in his Church.

Signups will be held Nov. 1st-10th.

Classes begin 1/12/15

More information is available in the Narthex of the Church.

On Veteran's Day we honor all,
Who answered to a service call.
Soldiers young, and soldiers old,
Fought for freedom, brave and bold.
Some have lived, while others died,
And all of them deserve our pride.
We're proud of all the soldiers who,
Kept God and country in their heart and true.
They fought for us and all our rights,
They fought through many days and nights.
And though we may not know each name,
We thank all veterans just the same.
God bless our Veterans and watch over each
Comfort their hearts and grant them peace.
