Blessed Among Us Blessed Zdenka Cecilia Schelingova Martyr (1916-1955)

Cecilia Schelingova was born in northern Slovakia. As a young girl she came into contact with the Sisters of Charity of the Holy Cross, a nursing order, and was inspired to join them. At fifteen, accompanied by her mother, she presented herself at the motherhouse of the congregation and asked to be admitted. After training as a nurse, with a specialty in radiology, she took her vows and became Sr. Zdenka.

In 1942 she was sent to a hospital in Bratislava. There she lived through the war and the subsequent Russian occupation. The post-war Communist regime imposed repressive measures against the Church. Many priests were arrested. Some of them, sick or recovering from torture, were sent to Zdenka's hospital. In 1952, learning that one of these prisoners was to be transferred to Siberia, she prayed for guidance: "Jesus, I offer my life for his. Save him." After putting sleeping pills in the guard's tea, she helped the priest escape. When she tried to repeat this ploy she was arrested. Subjected to torture and tried as an "enemy of the people's democracy", she was sentenced to twelve years in prison.

Her sufferings in prison—from cold, hunger, and untreated illness—were terrible. Finally, the state, not wanting to create a martyr, released her in April 1955. But her congregation, fearful of being associated with a convicted traitor, would not take her back. She died on July 31, 1955. She was beatified in 2003.

"I want to do God's will without paying attention to myself, my comfort or my rest."—Blessed Zdenka Cecilia Schelingova

Catholic News

Catholic Bytes is a new podcast started by three young American men—two priests and a deacon—studying in Rome who want to tell everyone about the beauty of Catholic faith and culture in, well, byte-sized pieces. Each episode is under 10 minutes and can be easily listened to whenever you have a few minutes to spare. The three founders planned out over 400 episodes that will cover several years and a wide range of topics. The podcast is set to release an episode every Monday, Wednesday, and first Friday.

The Catholic Bytes podcast can be downloaded (for free!) from their website, catholicbytespodcast.com (Visit www.ewtn.com/catholic-news for complete article)

Dear Padre

Is there alcohol in the Precious Blood?

If consecrated wine is truly the Precious Blood, how can it have any alcohol content? I have seen Eucharistic ministers drink what remains in their cup. Isn't the priest supposed to drink any that remains?

Catholics believe in transubstantiation. In short, this means that the bread and wine change at a substantial level, but the accidents remain. The bread becomes the body, blood, soul and divinity of Jesus Christ. The wine becomes the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Jesus Christ. Christ is not divided. So if someone receives just the host, he has received the fullness of Jesus Christ. And if someone only drinks from the chalice, he also receives the fullness of Jesus Christ.

However, the accidents remain. Accidents are anything that your physical senses could perceive. This is in contrast to the substance that is what something really is. So it looks like wine, it tastes like wine, and all the physical properties of wine—including the alcohol content—remain. But it really is the body, blood, soul, and divinity of Jesus.

This is a profound mystery. The Eucharist can only be understood by trusting in the words of our Savior.

A celebrating or con-celebrating priest must receive both species, but he does not have to be the last to drink. However, all of the Precious Blood must be consumed at the service.
