Blessed Among Us Blessed Santia Szymkowiak Religious (1910-1942)

Blessed Santia was born to a wealthy family in Poland. On a pilgrimage to Lourdes in 1934 she dedicated herself to the Blessed Virgin and afterward joined the Congregation of the Daughters of Our Lady of Sorrows (the "Seraphic Sisters"). Her diaries of the time reflect her youthful zeal: "Jesus wants me to be a holy religious and He will not be happy with me until I use all my strength for Him and become a saint. I have to be a saint at all costs. This is my constant preoccupation."

Her convent in Poznan fell in the direct path of Nazi invasion in 1939. Her community was placed under house arrest, and the sisters were forced to care for the German garrison and later for Allied prisoners of war. Having studied languages in school, Santia was put to work as a translator. For her kindness and charity she was known by the prisoners as St. Santia.

After contracting tuberculosis she had an opportunity to escape but chose to remain with her community. "God's will is my will" she said. "Whatever he wants, I want." She made her solemn vows on July 6, 1942, only to die on August 29 at the age of thirty-two. She was beatified by Pope John Paul II in 2002.

"Having embraced the religious life, she devoted herself to the service of others with greater fervor. She accepted the difficult times of the Nazi occupation as an occasion to give herself completely to the needy." —Pope John Paul II

RCIA: Do you know of someone who needs your words of encouragement to find Jesus and follow him, or someone who has been away from the Church? Maybe this person needs your invitation. It could be the most precious gift you could offer. You may use the following encouraging words: I would like to invite you to attend our "inquiry class" at Holy Redeemer Catholic Church on September 30, 2015 at 7:30pm. This meeting is an introduction to a program called RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults), and classes are for both those who are Catholic and want to update their faith/doctrine or for those who want to join the Catholic Church. Accepting this invitation does not bind you whatsoever to join the Catholic Church, but is a sign that Jesus cares about you and your soul. Would you give him a chance? God bless you.
