Blessed Among Us

Venerable Mary Angeline McCrory
Founder (1893-1984)

Mary Angeline McCrory was born in Northern Ireland in 1893. At the age of nineteen she joined the Little Sisters of the Poor, a French congregation dedicated to care for the destitute aged. After completing her novitiate in France she was sent to the United States, where she was eventually put in charge of a nursing home in the Bronx.

Over time, however, she felt increasingly constrained by the approach of her order in focusing exclusively on the destitute aged. After all, she reasoned, the ordeals of old age—loneliness, fear, disability—applied to people of all social classes. She consulted with the archbishop of New York, Cardinal Hayes, who encouraged her to start a new congregation. In 1931 this congregation was recognized as the Carmelite Sisters for the Aged and Infirm. Explaining her mission, she said, “Our Apostolate is not only to staff and operate up-to-date Homes for the Aged. As religious, it is to bring Christ to every old person under our care. Bringing Christ means giving them His Compassion, His interest, His loving care, His warmth—morning, noon, and night!”

The work of the Sisters spread to eighteen elder-care facilities around the country, plus one in Ireland. Mother Mary died on January 21, 1984, her ninety-first birthday. The cause for her canonization was introduced, and she was declared venerable in 2012.

“If you have to fail, let it be on the side of kindness. Be kinder than kindness itself to the old people.” —Venerable Mary Angeline McCrory

Kaleidoscope

This is a respite group that provides a safe, loving and stimulating environment for the person with dementia while their caregiver attends the Alzheimer Caregiver Support Group meeting. We have nurses, chaplains, hospice professionals and ministers that help to lead the activities of singing, games and lively conversation. Our goal is that the person with dementia is accepted at their own pace within the group and has a good time.

Kaleidoscope meets on the second Tuesday of each month from 1:00 to 3:00pm at the same time as the Alzheimer Support Group Meeting.
