Catholic Man of the Month Blessed Vasyl Velychkovsky (1903-1973)

The eldest of three children, Vasyl Velychkovsky was born in western Ukraine June 1, 1903. Raised by the devout parents, he and his siblings grew up in an atmosphere of prayer and charity.

After World War I, Velychkovsky entered the seminary in Lviv and joined the Redemptorists. Ordained in 1925, Father Velychkovsky served many groups in western Ukraine, from university students to Orthodox congregations who wished to join the Greek Catholic Church.

At the conclusion of World War II, Father Velychkovsky was arrested for anti-Soviet activities and offered freedom if he would deny his faith. "Never", he replied. "You can shoot me and kill me but you will not get any other answer." He was tortured, interrogated and sentenced to death, but he continued to counsel and catechize his fellow inmates. When his name was called, he learned that his sentence had been commuted to 10 years of force labor.

Father Velychkovsky spent most of these years in the Vorkuta coal mines, where he continued his pastoral work north of the Arctic Circle. He heard confessions in mineshafts, celebrated Mass using a spoon as a chalice and wine made from raisins, and prayed constantly with a rosary made of black bread and string.

Released in 1955, his apartment in Lviv soon became the organizational hub of the Ukrainian underground Church. Secretly ordained a bishop in 1963, he vigorously continued his ministry until his arrest in 1969. Enduring various forms of torture for the next three years, he was close to death upon his release in 1972.

Exiled from Ukraine, bishop Velychkovsky lived in Winnipeg, Manitoba, until his death June 30, 1973. Beatified by Pope John Paul II on June 27, 2001, Blessed Vasyl is patron of prison ministry for the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church.

*God took the strength of a mountain, the majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun, the calm of a quiet sea,
The generous soul of nature, the comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages, the power of the eagle's flight,
The joy of a morning in spring, the faith of a mustard seed,
The patience of eternity, the depth of a family need,
Then God combined these qualities, when there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete, and so, He called it...*

ST. JOSEPH: WHAT THE HEAD OF THE HOLY FAMILY CAN TEACH MEN TODAY / PRAYER WARRIOR

Joseph shows us that to be masculine is to be a man of prayer, to be close to God. There's not a question in Joseph's mind that the dream he experienced was rooted in God. It is important to carve out time for prayer and listen to God. A man needs a rich prayer life because he cannot give what he does not have.

Dear Padre

How should we treat sacred art in church?

What is the proper way to treat sacred art in church? It upsets me to see that people place of hymnals, pamphlets, plants, and other objects at the base of a sacred statue.

Catholics are a sacramental people. We use objects and works of art to reveal and remind us of God's presence and love acting in our lives. So we should respect statues, paintings, images, and sacred art. These items are valuable and make our churches beautiful. Sacred art helps us to enter into prayer. We do not adore these items as idols, but they help us to meditate and contemplate on God.

Therefore, we should respect the sensibilities of other people. Too many items around a work of art may distract people or even damage the art. So everything should be kept in its right place. For example, hymnals belong in their proper place.

On the other hand, items near the art may enhance our prayer experience. A prayer card that is associated with a statue may be nearby, or flowers may enhance the beauty of the art. But this should always be done tastefully and with the parish's permission.

In this way, we keep God's house clean and in order. Everything has a reason for where it is, and everything should be in its proper place.
